VALENTINE'S Mixed PAINTS.
If you purpose painting in the near future we take the liberty of suggesting the advisability of your using High Grade Paint, made of absolutely pure Linseed Oil carefully selected and the best pigments that the markets of the world afford. Such an article is Valentine's Ready-Mixed Paint.
In addition to being made of the very best material, carefully and uniformly ground, each gallon contains a full gallon of the United States Standard.
It will cost you the same for labor whether you use a good and high-priced paint or a poor and cheap paint, and you cannot get a good article unless you pay a good price for it. If you use cheap paint your house will disclose the fact in a very few months and will soon require repainting. If you use the best paint you can buy you will secure durability and perfect satisfaction. As labor is the most important item in painting the paint that will wear the longest is certainly the paint that you require, and we need not remind you that the paint that will give perfect satisfaction and the longest possible wear will prove cheapest in the end.
The name of Valentine & Company, which is associated only with the manufacture of High Grade Paints, Colors and Paints, is sufficient guarantee that our Ready-Mixed Paints will fulfill every claim that we make for them. On a new surface primed, or an old one properly treated, one gallon of Valentine's Liquid House Paint will cover 300 square feet of surface two coats. It must be borne in mind, of course, that a very porous or rough surface will require more paint than a hard and smooth surface.

THE NATIONAL GUARD OF PENNSYLVANIA.

The National Guard of Pennsylvania is encamped on the field of Gettysburg. General Schall's Brigade, the First, is located on the Spangler farm, occupying the ground on which General Pickett formed his division, to lead the greatest charge ever made on this continent; here Pickett, with his division of Virginians, was brought on the morning of July 31, and because he had not participated in the battles of the 1st and 2d, was selected to lead this great movement. And here General Kemper and Gamett led their splendid brigades, while Armistead, with his brigade, followed until he came opposite the Codor house, and, turning to his right, crossed the Emmitsburg road, joining Kemper and Gamett, rushed for the stone wall in their front. While Kemper, Armistead and Gamett were moving to the point of attack, the artillery along our entire front from Cemetery Hill to Round Top, poured shot and shell into the advancing line. In this great charge General Lee lost over 10,000 men killed, wounded and prisoners, and 27 Confederate battle flags were captured along the stone wall. General Wiley's Brigade, the Second, is located opposite the Sherry House along the Emmitsburg road on Cemetery Hill. It was here that the gallant General Lee with his brigade of the old 3d Corps changed front three times while under fire; where Perry's and Wilcox's Confederate Brigades charged on the evening of the Second day of the battle, and where the 1st Michigan, Regt. except forty-two. Over this ground General Sickles fought his fight. Here the gallant Biglow lost his men and horses of his battery and was compelled to abandon his guns. Here the brave Confederate General Buford was mortally wounded and died; here the Union soldiers were determined to drive back that proud and defiant army of General Lee's, and here General Lee was determined to defeat that grand old Army of the Potomac and make the Confederacy permanent.

General Gohin's Brigade, the Third, is encamped on the fields west of Washington street. This is the ground on which General Rhodes formed his division to assault Cemetery Hill on the evening of July 31.

The location selected for Headquarters is in the field in front of The Angle known as the High Water Mark of the Rebellion. This point General Miller, the Division Commander, can look over the entire camp. No point of the battlefield is richer in historic importance than the one selected for the headquarters of commander of the State militia. Behind the stone wall, back of the tents, a row of monuments mark the place where the Union soldiers met the tide wave of Pickett's charging command; met it and forced it back over the field and across the Emmitsburg road, turning the tide of the Rebellion. The cavalry and artillery are located east of Reynolds' avenue between the Chambersburg pike and Springs road. This piece of ground was fought over on the first day of July, 1863, by General Stone, Meredith and Chapman Biddle. Here was the great contest opened; here our gallant Pennsylvanians, General John Fulton Reynolds, gave his life for the Union; here is where the 50th Pa. Regt. drew the first shot, and the 24th Mich. Regt. lost 55 of its number killed; here the gallant General Stone was severely wounded, and also here Col. Dana of the 6th Cavalry, pierced with an enemy's bullet, and the college professor, Col. McFarland, while lying on the ground wounded, was again shot through the leg; here young Major Heidecuper refused to leave the field when wounded, but manfully stuck to his regiment until a second shot took off his arm, and General Paul had both eyes shot out. In fact, every foot of this camp-ground was fought over.

HARRISBURG LETTER.
CHAIRMAN CROSBY HAS FAVORABLE REPORTS FROM THE STATE-PENNY-PACKER BEFORE AND AFTER TAKING OFFICIAL POSITION.

State Chairman Crosby has taken considerable trouble since the Erie convention to ascertain the sentiment in every portion of the State as to the political situation at the outset of the campaign. He finds, through the medium of the press as well as by personal correspondence, that the Democratic nominations are eminently satisfactory not only to the party, but to the large number of Republicans who have been forced to the conclusion that the only way to defeat its candidates at the polls, and teach the bosses that the people have some rights that must be respected.

The Democratic press is unanimous in hearty support of our ticket while the independent press not only of the State but of the nation is unanimous in declaring that the plain duty of Pennsylvania Republicans who place their citizenship above partisanship is to vote for Patton, Guthrie and Nolan. Hundreds of Republicans who have heretofore refused to assert themselves now declare that it is high time for a repetition of the Beaver overthrow in 1882 and the Delawarean defeat in 1890; and that Quayism, never so odious as it is at the present time, shall now receive the death blow that should have been administered long ago. Developments may be looked for during the campaign that will strike dismay to the Old Boss who refuses to head his own vicious machine in name as he always has in reality.

Partly Above Candidates
It makes but little difference to the honest, intelligent voter who is a candidate for Governor, if he be an honest, able man upheld by those whose only desire is to have an honest administration of public affairs. Almost any man could make a creditable Governor if he were rightly advised and faithfully supported. While Democrats had their personal choice, of course, they realized that the candidates in of little importance compared with the party and policy that are likely to control his administration. Democrats felt that any of their candidates could be safely entrusted with the reins of government because they were all able, honest men; and what is better still the nominee, whoever he might be, if elected, would have at his back all the reform forces of the State to aid him in his fight against corrupt machine rule.

The only hope of the machine lay in the effort to deceive the people by putting forward Pennypacker and declaring that he was an honest man. Since he is a candidate for a high position nominated admittedly by corrupt means, his honesty may rightly be called into question and it must be judged just as any other man's, by his acts. It will not do to assume that he is honest simply because he is a judge on the bench, especially if there are several things that go to discredit his political motives. A few years ago he was one of the most outspoken opponents of Quay and Quayism in the State. Which has changed since that time? Quay or Pennypacker? It has never been questioned that he was sincere in declaring in 1882 that Quay and his candidate Gen. Beaver, should be defeated for the good of the State, and yet Quayism in its various forms, then it was in 32, Quay had not then been obliged to plead the statute of limitations to save himself from the peremptory nor had all the independent papers of the country as well as many Republican papers outside the State denounced Quayism as a disgrace to the Commonwealth.

What Converted Pennypacker?
If Pennypacker believed Quay and his system so dangerous to the welfare of the State twenty years ago as to lead him to advocate their defeat, why should he to-day believe that the same old politician is worthy of a high office from his past record declaring that "Quay is a great statesman who fails in no duty and whose real greatness approaches genius"? Was Pennypacker's change of heart brought about because he believes what nobody else does that Quay is better to-day than he was twenty years ago? Is his judgment so faulty to trust him in the Governor's chair. Was his conversion due to the fact that he was made a judge at the instigation of Quay? If so, he is not honest and is not entitled to the support of honest men.

If Pennsylvania, as Pennypacker says, has no evils worthy of mention then he would in case he were elected Governor not consider ripper bills, franchise grabs and corrupt legislation generally as worthy of his attention on his part. The feeling is general that Pennypacker is a trimmer who changed from being an outspoken opponent of Quay to becoming his personal protégé simply for his personal benefit. The feeling is also general that Gov. Patton is a safe man to trust in the Governor's chair; that he can neither be bribed, bullied nor coaxed into the support of corrupt measures. Besides he has at his back all the elements that make for reform while Pennypacker stands for all that has made Pennsylvania a disgrace to the States of the Union.

BASE-BALL NEWS.

The Gettysburg A. C. played a game of baseball with a team from Littlestown on Friday last Friday afternoon. Gettysburg claimed that the score was a tie at the end of the 9th inning, while the Littlestown boys claimed victory by the score of 10 to 0. The dispute arose over an alleged error of the scorer, by which Gettysburg had to put four men out, thus allowing Littlestown to score the winning run. A return game will be played at Littlestown.

The next game will be played here next Friday afternoon on Nixon Field with Fox's Fourth U. S. Artillery team, which, it is reported, is very strong. Some new talent will assist the A. C. team, whereby the team will be much strengthened. The patronage of the public is urged; it will be fully appreciated by the boys.

Boys' Brigade Here.

About forty boys, ranging in age from 12 to 20 years, from Lancaster and known as the Seventh Regiment of Pennsylvania of the United Boys' Brigade of America, arrived in Washington last Saturday, having marched all the way from Lancaster by way of Annapolis.

They are under command of Lieutenant Landon, the whole party being in charge of Colonel Joseph H. Culp III. The boys wear khaki uniforms and campaign hats, and look like a miniature body of volunteers. They leave Washington to-day for Lancaster by way of Gettysburg and will march all the way home. They carry everything necessary for their march including their tents.

The United Boys' Brigade of America, to which they belong, is a religious organization, non-denominational, whose object is the development of Christian manliness.

Poem on "Gettysburg."

Mrs. Mabel Cronis Jones, of Harrisburg, who has won an enviable reputation as an authoress, has recently had an epic on this subject published in the National Geographic Magazine. The poem treats with the great battle of the Civil War in a comprehensive manner and adheres to historical facts. It is well written from a poetical standpoint and is most pleasing to those who are well acquainted with the battle of the field.

GANGEROUS

ULCERS

Are in many respects like other ulcers or sores, and this resemblance often proves fatal. Valuable time is lost in fruitless efforts to heal the sore with washes and salves, because the germs of Cancer are multiplying in the blood and the new Cancer cells which are constantly developing keep up the irritation and discharge, and at last sharp shooting pains announce the approach of the eating and sloughing stage, and a hideous, disgusting cancerous sore begins its career.

No ulcer or sore can exist without some predisposing internal cause that has poisoned the blood, and the open discharging ulcer, or the festering sore on the lip, cheek or other part of the body will continue to spread and eat deeper into the flesh unless the blood is purified and the Cancer germs or morbid matter eliminated from the circulation.

S. S. S. cleanses the blood of all decaying effluvia. It has great antitoxic and purifying properties that soon destroy the germs and poisons and restore the blood to its natural condition. And when pure blood is carried to the ulcer or sore, the healing process begins, the discharge ceases and the place heals over and new skin forms. S. S. S. is a strictly vegetable blood purifier containing no mercury or other poisonous ingredients.
